

SECTION 8 STORAGE RULES AND STORAGE RATES

	Item #
Free Time	800.0
Definition - Free time is the specific period of time cargo may occupy assigned space on Port property free of storage charges. Free time can occur immediately prior to loading or after the discharge of such cargo from the vessel.	800.1
Allowances	800.2
For breakbulk cargo (undercover), free time of ten (10) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, will be allowed. The free time period will begin at 7 a.m. after receipt of cargo at the first place of rest or, if the cargo is discharged from the vessel, at 7 a.m. after the vessel completes discharge.	800.2.1
For containerized cargo that is unstuffed at the Port, free time of ten (10) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, will be allowed. The free time period will begin at 7 a.m. after the cargo has been unstuffed.	800.2.2
For containerized cargo held in the container, free time will commence at 7 a.m. after the vessel completes discharge. See exception, Item 800.2.4 below.	800.2.3
Cargo on open ground, including loaded containers, except loaded reefer containers (see Item 800.3.6 below), shall be allowed free time of thirty (30) calendar days.	800.2.4
Exceptions (See Item 125.0 regarding conditions of cargo acceptance.)	800.3
Explosives, inflammable and hazardous commodities shall be allowed no free time and are subject to immediate loading or removal. See Item 125.0	800.3.2
Livestock shall be allowed no free time and are only permitted to pass over wharf subject to immediate loading or removal.	800.3.3
Salvaged or offensive cargo, if in damaged or offensive condition of any nature, may, at the option of the Port, be refused any free time and shall be subject to immediate loading or removal.	800.3.4
Alcoholic beverages, except beer and ales, shall be allowed 48 hours free time, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, and must be removed from the Port facilities, federal and state regulations permitting, before the expiration of this period. Any shipment or partial shipment of alcoholic beverages remaining on Port facilities after this period will be moved to a bonded warehouse, as stated in Item 125.3 with all expense and risk of loss or damage for account of owner, shipper, consignee or carrier.	800.3.5
Loaded reefer containers are restricted to ten (10) days free time, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays.	800.3.6
Extended free time - For larger than normal cargo shipments and upon shipper's request, the Port, or the terminal operator at their sole discretion, may grant time of up to 90 days beyond the regular free time allowance.	800.3.7

	Item #
Terminal Storage	805.0
Definition - Terminal storage is the service of providing warehouse or other terminal facilities for the storing of intransit cargo interchanged with or between water carriers at the Port when arrangements are entered into prior to arrival of cargo at the Port. Conditions Governing Acceptance of Cargo for Storage - Storage of cargo interchanged with or between water carriers at the Port's marine terminal facilities at Olympia, Washington, will be permitted when space is available, providing arrangements are made prior to the arrival of the cargo. "Arrangements" are defined as a written request submitted to the Port by the prospective storer describing the cargo, type of storage required (covered, open, bonded), length of time storage will be necessary, and name and address of the party responsible for storage payment, and accepted by the Port no later than 24 hours prior to cargo's arrival. If rehandling, repiling, shifting, or yarding of cargo is required for storage, it will be billed at the tariff labor rates shown in Section 6 and equipment rates shown in Section 7. Invoices will be issued against the owner of the cargo at the time of move. If drayage is required to make the cargo available for storage, the drayage expense will be in addition to any storage charges and will be invoiced to the owner of the cargo.	805.1

SECTION 8 STORAGE RULES AND STORAGE RATES

	Item #
Responsibility for Storage Charges - Storage charges shall be assessed against the owner of record for cargo in storage on the first day of the month for which the storage charges accrue. It shall be the responsibility of the cargo owner to notify the Port in writing whenever a change of title takes place giving the complete name and address of the new owner and the date title change takes place. Computing Monthly Storage Charges And Bonded Storage - Storage charges are payable in advance and will be computed on the following basis after the expiration of free time: Cargo that becomes subject to storage charges during the first fifteen (15) days of a month shall, for the balance of the month, be assessed a full month's storage. Cargo subject to storage charges on or after the 16th day of a month shall, for the balance of the month, be assessed a half month's storage. Thereafter, cargo remaining in storage on the first day of each succeeding calendar month shall be assessed the applicable monthly storage rate.	805.3
Cargo Removal - The Port reserves the right to have any cargo stored on its premises for a period of twelve (12) months or longer removed from its premises. If the owner of record fails to remove his cargo within thirty (30) calendar days after notification requesting its removal, the Port may have the cargo removed from its premises with all costs incident to its removal and any subsequent storage elsewhere borne by the owner of the cargo.	805.5
Delivery Charge - A charge (Tariff Item 8000.800) shall be assessed for each delivery to the owner of record at the time of delivery.	805.6
Space Rental Storage	810.0
Definition - Storage space in open or covered areas may be reserved provided, in the opinion of the Port space is open and available at the marine terminal facilities. Available space can be reserved for periods of thirty (30) calendar days or longer. In addition, the rental of storage space must not interfere with terminal storage of cargo as defined in Item 805.0.	810.1

SECTION 8 STORAGE RULES AND STORAGE RATES

	Item #
Conditions	810.2
All necessary services required or requested in connection with cargo stored under this item will be performed by the Port under the rules and rates specified in this tariff.	810.2.1
No cargo will be permitted for storage except cargo interchanged with or between water carriers at the Port's marine terminal facilities.	810.2.2
No cancellation of space rental agreements entered into under these rules will be permitted on less than fifteen (15) calendar days' notice. A full month's charge will be made for the month in which the agreement is cancelled or the area vacated.	810.2.3
Storage charges shall be billed monthly based upon the actual space used on the first working day of the month expressed in square feet.	810.2.4
The Port reserves the right to have cargo stored on its premises for twelve (12) months or longer removed from its premises. If the owner of record fails to remove the related cargo within thirty (30) calendar days after notification requesting its removal, the Port may remove it with all costs associated herewith (and any subsequent storage) borne by the owner of the cargo.	810.2.5
Exceptions -The provisions of these rules (Item 810.0) do not apply to iron and steel.	810.3
