Port Seeks Public Input at April 27th Meeting Public can comment on compensation increase for port commissioners that would take effect in 2012

The Port of Olympia Commission is again seeking public input on a compensation increase for port commissioners that would take effect in 2012. The matter is on the advisory calendar of the Port Commission meeting scheduled for Monday, April 27, 2009, at 5:30 p.m., in the LOTT Board Room, Market Centre Building -2nd Floor, 111 Market Street NE, Olympia.

The Commission also heard public comment on the compensation increase at their meeting of April 13, 2009.

About the Port of Olympia

The southernmost deepwater port on Puget Sound, the Port of Olympia owns and operates an international shipping terminal that handles a range of breakbulk and project cargoes. The Port also owns and operates a regional airport, a 733-slip recreational marina and boat haulout/repair facility, and a real estate division. A community port, it generates an estimated 2,600 jobs in Thurston County.
